Note.

Honnaganahalli & Kuru-baramallenhalli are adjacent villages in the Krishnarajpet taluk, the former being a Sarvamanya Inam village & the latter a Government village.
A toddy shop is situated at a place where the boundaries of the two villages meet. In 1891-92 ~~of~~ ~~the~~ the shop was by some inadvertence on the part of the local officials treated as ~~a~~ Government shop belonging to Kurubarmalle-halli village. As there was no objection raised by the Inamdar since then, the shop continued to be treated as Government toddy shop & the annual rent all proceeds were accordingly being credited to Government.

On complaint made by the Inamdars to the Excise Commr an enquiry was instituted and the records ~~show that the~~ and sketch enclosed show that the shop belongs to the Inam village. The Deputy Commr & the Survey Supt to whom the matter was referred by the Excise Commr are also of opinion that the shop belongs to the Inam village & the Inamdars are entitled to toddy revenue of the shop in question.
The Excise Commr accordingly recommends that orders may be passed to show the shop in Govt accounts as "Hannaganhalli Inam toddy shop" instead ordinarily be granted. As the above order was not passed on any application from any body, no endorsement has been given from this office. Beg to orders as to whether the Copy asked for may be given to the Petitioner.

to the records of the special Officers in question, a list of toddy shops prepared by the Toddy Daroga of French Rocks Sub Division, was found but Sarvamanya Hounaganahally shop is mentioned, and not "Government Kurubarmallenahally toddy shop." But in the sale list of the Special Officers which is signed by both mr B. Gopalaiengar and late mr Mc Donnell, "Kurubarmallenahalli Kanaway" shop is entered; and not "Inam Hounaganahally shop". On addressing —— mr Gopalaiengar on this subject he writes to say that if he remembers right the shop in question is situated at a place where the boundaries of Kurubarmallenahally and Hounaganahally meet close to the Krishnaraj-pet—Seringapatam D. P. W. Road and the —— locality belonged to Kurubarmallenahally, that it was therefore treated as Government shop; that if the Amildar is satisfied —— from personal inspection of the locality —— that it is within the limits of the Inam —— village and can indicate it on the map, then it alters the matter altogether. On this I asked mr Abdul Azyz, Revenue Officer,

Mysore

Mysore Excise Division, to inspect the spot and report on the facts of the case. His report and the sketch therewith received, show that the shop in dispute is situated in the limits of Inam Hounaganahalli village. The Amildar of the Taluk has also reported to the Deputy Commissioner that the shop is situated on the land belonging to the Inam village, and that it has been there from the very beginning as certified by villagers. Accordingly the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, reports that the Inamdar is entitled to the Toddy Revenue of the shop.

2. In the Inam Settlement Register of the above Inam Hounaganahalli Village, in which Veerambudikopal where the toddy-shop is reported to exist, is entered as the "Wadi" (hamlet) of Hounaganahalli, the Superintendent of Inam settlements has recorded -. "The rights to Sayer and Toddy are conceded as per the Sunnad."

3. The Inamdars have produced documents in proof of their having enjoyed the Toddy Revenue of the village up to the end of March 1892.

4. An extract of the Survey map of Kemmbaramallenahalli village, received from the Deputy Commissioner with his No. 49, dated 7th instant and on which the Amildar has marked the position of-
